

LTC 2024-2025 Cohort Application Details

Applications are due Friday, June 14, 2024 EOD

Program Qualification Questions

- Are you able to attend all* the program days?
Will allow 1 excused absence, otherwise recommend applying a different year*
- Do you understand and accept this program is in-person* only?
Besides the 2 virtual half days in October, there is no virtual/hybrid option for the program*
- Have you discussed your application with your supervisor and gotten their approval to take time off* to participate?
Program accounts for 12 days of professional development*

Essay Questions

We recommend writing your answers in Word and copy/pasting it into the survey system when you are ready to submit your application.

- What do you do professionally? Please tell us about your current job responsibilities and share a brief summary of past positions.
- What professional, social, civic, or community organizations are you currently affiliated with or have been involved with in recent years?
- Please tell us about your community leadership experience both professional and voluntary. Include any leadership roles you've had in the organizations listed above (task forces, committees, boards, etc.)
- Of the items listed above, which involvement are you most passionate about and why? If you are not currently involved with community activities, please describe past experiences and/or share how you might see yourself involved in the future.
- Identify a social challenge that you are personally very passionate about and feel is critical to the success of the Minneapolis-Saint Paul region. Explain why you think this is important and what steps (if any) you've taken to address it yourself.
- Why are you seeking admission to the Leadership Twin Cities program? What do you hope to gain from your experience?

Interviews/Selection

After you apply, a volunteer Leadership Twin Cities alumni will reach out to schedule an interview by the end of June. You will be notified whether or not you were selected for the program by the end of July. If selected, tuition payment will be required by September 6, 2024.